

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Xin Chen(陈欣) is an Associate Professor of Xiamen University, China. She obtained her Ph.D., LL.M. and LL.B. from the Law School of Xiamen University. Dr. Chen conducted postdoctoral research at East China University of Political Science and Law before she returned to teach at the Law School of Xiamen University. Her main teaching and research interests are international monetary and financial law, and international trade law. Currently, she chairs a project of the National Science Foundation of China, titled “The International Monetary Governance in the Context of Digital Currency and China’s Participation.” She may be contacted at: echoflying@xmu.edu.cn.

Junghwan Choi is a lecturer and foreign expert at Dalian Maritime University (DMU) Law School, China. He earned a Bachelor of Marine Engineering and a Master of Laws at the Korea Maritime and Ocean University (Busan, South Korea). He was also awarded an LL.M. in International Maritime Law with Merit from Swansea University (UK) and Ph.D. in Law from the University of Exeter (UK). Dr. Choi’s main areas of expertise are Public Maritime Law, Law of the Sea, International Marine Environmental Law, Marine Policy, and the IMO Conventions. He was Research Fellow on the EU Maritime Industry and the Maritime Cluster Networking in Korea (2017-20). He is currently Director of International Affairs at the Korea Institute of Maritime Law. Prior to joining DMU, he was a teaching associate and lecturer at the Korea Maritime and Ocean University. Professor Choi has expertise for maritime education and training. Furthermore, he is a qualified second-class engineer and has been aboard merchant ships more than five years as the first engineer. He may be contacted at: junghwanchoi@dlmu.edu.cn.

Jiansuo Qi is an associate research fellow at the Maritime Law Institute of Shanghai Maritime University, specializing in maritime law with a focus on maritime safety and marine environment protection. Jiansuo holds a Bachelor’s degree in Navigation Science from Dalian Maritime University (China); an LL.M. in Maritime Law from Swansea University (UK); and a Ph.D. in law from Korea University. Dr. Qi brings a wealth of expertise in shipping management, particularly in offshore sectors. His professional background includes an offshore project supervisor at COSCO Shipping. He may be contacted at: qizixin2009@live.cn.

Ridoan Karim is a Lecturer at the Department of Business Law & Taxation of Monash University School of Business, Malaysia. He has taught and researched in the fields of business and cyber law. Ridoan Karim holds a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) from the University of Malaya, Malaysia. Dr. Karim also obtained a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Chichester, UK, a Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), and a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from BRAC University, Bangladesh. The author may be contacted at: ridoan.karim@monash.edu.

Junchao Liu is a research assistant at the Center for International Law of Cyberspace at Xiamen University Law School. His primary research areas include international economic law and data governance. Prior to joining Xiamen University, he worked at the Cyberspace Administration of Fujian Province in China, where he was primarily responsible for administrative approval and law enforcement work. He has also been involved in formulating multiple local laws and policies in China, and has extensive experience in local data governance. He may be contacted at: 12920211154738@stu.xmu.edu.cn.

Young Yoon Park is an attorney-at-law (Korean Bar) practicing at Yulchon LLC in Seoul, Korea. He received LL.M. from King's College London (2019) and J.D. from Yonsei Law School (magna cum laude). Young Yoon also studied economics at Seoul National University where he got Bachelor's and Master's degrees in that field. Before practicing law, he was involved in M&A advisory and tax consultation services as a qualified accountant in Deloitte Korea and PwC Korea. His legal practice focuses on litigation related to securities law and company law. Young Yoon's main academic interest includes international and comparative analysis on finance regulation. He may be contacted at: yypark@yulchon.co.

Kim-Anh Dao is a Lecturer in Law at the Law Faculty of Foreign Trade University (FTU) in Hanoi, Vietnam. She earned an LL.B. from FTU and an LL.M. in business law from the University of Adelaide, Australia. Currently, she is pursuing her Ph.D. in international law at Korea University. Her research interests include international investment law, ASEAN law, and international dispute resolution. Prior to joining FTU, Dao served as an in-house legal counsel at VinGroup, a leading multi-sector corporation in Vietnam, where she advised on commercial contract negotiations and investment projects. She can be contacted at: anhdk@ftu.edu.vn.

Aryuni Yuliantiningsih is an Associate Professor of International Law. Her major research areas are public international law, law of the sea, humanitarian law and space law. She obtained S.H. (Jenderal Soedirman University), M.H. (Padjadjaran University) and Ph.D. (Sebelas Maret University). She was invited as speaker to Indonesian Society of international Law Lectures (ISILL) with the theme of “Space X and The Privatization of Space.” Currently, she is Head of International Law Department at Faculty of Law Universitas Jenderal Soedirman. She may be contacted at: aryuni.yuliantiningsih@unsoed.ac.id.

Ade Maman Suherman is Professor of International Law at Universitas Jenderal Soedirman Faculty of Law. He went to Groningen University (MSc) and the University of Indonesia (Ph.D.). His research focuses on international law, international trade law and international organization law. Professor Suherman has published many books and articles in national and international journals. He may be contacted at: ade.suherman@unsoed.ac.id.

Noer Indriati is an Associate Professor of International Law at Jenderal Soedirman University Faculty of Law. She hold S.H. and M.H from Diponegoro University and Ph.D. from Padjadjaran University. Her research focuses on international law, international criminal law and child right. She may be contacted at: noer.indriati@unsoed.ac.id.

Wismaningsih is a lecturer at Faculty of Law of Universitas Jenderal Soedirman. Her research focuses are on International Law, Air and Outer Space Law, Diplomatic and Consular Law, and International Humanitarian Law. She graduated from Universitas Jenderal Soedirman, Purwokerto, Indonesia (S.H.) and Universitas Padjadjaran, Bandung, Indonesia (M.H.). She is a Head of International Law Department at Universitas Jenderal

Soedirman. She may be contacted at: wismaningsih@unsoed.ac.id.

Baginda Khalid Hidayat Jati is an Assistant Professor of International Law. He focuses on International Criminal Law, Environmental Law, and International Humanitarian Law. He graduated from Universitas Gadjah Mada (S.H./M.H.). The author may be contacted at: baginda.khalid@unsoed.ac.id.

Kartono is an Associated Professor in Environmental Law at Universitas Jenderal Soedirman Law Faculty. He graduated from Universitas Jenderal Soedirman (S.H), Universitas Airlangga (M.H), and Universitas Gadjah Mada (Ph.D.) The author may be contacted at: kartono@unsoed.ac.id

Natalia Yeti Puspita is an Associate Professor and the Head of International Law Department at Atma Jaya Catholic University Faculty of Law, Indonesia. Her main teaching and research interests include on Public International Law and Disaster Management Law. She has published many articles in journals, a book on Regional Law (ASEAN & European Union), and a book chapter on Good Governance and Flood Management in Jakarta.

She was an Asian Law Institute (ASLI) Fellow at the National University of Singapore. She may be contacted at: natalia.yip@atmajaya.ac.id.

Yanti Fristikawati is a Lecturer at the Faculty of Law Atma Jaya Catholic University of Indonesia. She is also the Coordinator of the Research and Community Service Faculty of Law Atma Jaya Catholic University. Her research interests lie in Environmental Law and Nuclear Law. She received her LL.M. from Padjadjaran University and her Doctorate from Parahyangan University, Indonesia. She may be contacted at yanti.fristikawati@atmajaya.ac.id.

Piter Zunimik is an Assistance Professor at Atma Jaya Catholic University Faculty of Law, Indonesia. He obtained LL.B. and MBL from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan and Technische Universität Berlin, respectively. Piter is mainly interested Public International Law and International Energy Law. He may be contacted at: piter.zunimik@atmajaya.ac.id.

Nehaluddin Ahmad is currently a Senior Professor of Law at University Islam Sultan Sharif Ali (UNISSA), Brunei Darussalam. His main teaching and research interests are constitutional law, international law and politics, law and technology, and comparative law. He holds an LL.D. from Meerut University (India), LL.M. (IT and Telecom. Law) from the University of Strathclyde (UK), and M.A./LL.M./LL.B. from Lucknow University (India). He has practiced law as an advocate at Lucknow Bench of Allahabad High Court, India and worked as a solicitor in Singapore. Professor Ahmad authored books and many refereed academic articles. He may be contacted at: ahmadnehal@yahoo.com.

Faizan Mustafa is Vice-Chancellor of Chanakya National Law University, Patna, Bihar, India. He was Dean of the Faculty of Law at Aligarh Muslim University and Registrar of Aligarh Muslim University, India. Dr. Mustafa has written many books and articles. He was the recipient of both a Commonwealth Scholarship and a Fulbright Fellowship. He holds Ph.D./LL.M./LL.B. from Aligarh Muslim University, India. He can be contacted at: mustafa.faizan@gmail.com.

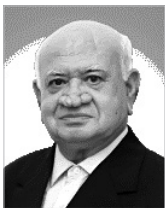

Hanan Abdul Aziz is a Deputy Dean (Law) and lecturer at Sultan Sharif Ali Islamic University (UNISSA), Brunei Darussalam. She obtained a Ph.D. from the University of Wales Trinity Saint David University (UK), an LL.M. from Westminster University (UK) and LL.B. from IIUM (Malaysia). She can be contacted at: hanan.aziz@unissa.edu.bn.

Xinyi Sun is presently a doctoral candidate at East China University of Political Science and Law, where she also obtained her LL.B. and LL.M. Furthering her legal education, she obtained an LL.M. from the University of California, Berkeley, and was subsequently admitted to the New York Bar. Her research interest lies in Public International Law, with a specific emphasis on International Criminal Law and international criminal jurisdiction. Her current doctoral research topic focuses on the exercise and limits of universal jurisdiction. She may be contacted at: tanya.xinyi@berkeley.edu.

Abdirizak Osman Abdullahi is a distinguished legal professional with a wealth of experience in academia and legal consultancy. He served as the former Secretary of the Faculty of Law at SIMAD University in Mogadishu, Somalia, where he also served as a law lecturer. His academic interests encompass Public International Law, International Humanitarian Law, and International Human Rights Law. The author may be contacted at: Abdirizaak.osman15@gmail.com.

Badar Alam Iqbal is Distinguished Expert for African Political Economy Policy Lab at the Africa Centre for Strategy and Policy (AFRICACFSP). He is Former Fulbright Visiting Professor and Scholar in Residence (SIR) in 2004 and 2016. Presently, Dr. Iqbal is a Professor Extraordinaries at College of Graduate Studies of the University of South Africa. Professor Iqbal is Editor-in-Chief of Management and Economics Research Journal. He may be contacted at: badar.iqbal@fulbrightmail.org.

Mohd. Nayyer Rahman is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce at Aligarh Muslim University, India. His research areas are International Economics, International Business and Applied Econometrics. His academic publications have covered empirical evidences on BRICS studies, causality relationship of macroeconomic variables and Latin American countries, to name a few. He may be contacted at: mnrahman.co@myamu.ac.in.